

TALMUDICAL SEMINARY OHOLEI TORAH

TRANSFER CREDITS

Talmudical Seminary Oholei Torah program is highly specialized and focused in the field of Talmudic studies and related disciplines. As such, courses taken at other institutions will not be considered for credit unless they are deemed to be substantially similar in content, scope and intensity to courses offered by Talmudical Seminary Oholei Torah. This determination is at the exclusive discretion of the Dean at Talmudical Seminary Oholei Torah.

Students who have earned credit at other post-secondary institutions may request to have their prior study evaluated for possible transfer of credit.

Potentially acceptable coursework for credit will generally have been completed at an accredited institution, preferably affiliated with the Chabad network, whose academic program is substantially similar to that offered at Talmudical Seminary Oholei Torah.

Knowledge, experiences, and prior enrollment in courses related to the field of Talmudic Studies may be eligible for transfer credits as prior learning experience. These credits are assessed when the student is admitted to Talmudical Seminary Oholei Torah.

Talmudical Seminary Oholei Torah will grant a maximum of 84 transfer credits towards Talmudical Seminary Oholei Torah's First Talmudic Degree, for transfer coursework submitted.

To earn a First Talmudic Degree at Talmudical Seminary Oholei Torah, students must fulfill a minimum academic residency requirement of 36 credits earned at Talmudical Seminary Oholei Torah.

Students can request an evaluation that assesses their competency in reading and interpreting Talmud and measures analytical skills and critical thinking and reasoning abilities. The evaluation ascertains the level and type of study appropriate for the students in Talmudical Seminary Oholei Torah. The student may then be awarded credits by evaluation.

All such requests will be handled on a case-by-case basis, and will be decided at the sole discretion of the Dean.

Please note that decisions by the Dean, or his appointee, for any type of consideration of transfer credit are final and not subject to appeal.
